CLOSER LOOK: Avg. winning Beyer for this is 87; appears the one beat as part of the 2-headed O'Brien monster (with Heavens Gate); after all, she's not only perfect in 4 starts, the last 2 were G1s where she beat top quality rivals and she has to rank as 1 of the top 2 or 3 2yo fillies in Europe; Euros have won just 3 of the 16 runnings but one of those was O'Brien (Meditate, 2022) so he knows what it takes, and you can make a case this girl is better than Meditate; still must deal with all those hurdles (shipping, new surroundings, tighter layout, firm turf) but there's a lot on the asset side of the ledger.

A maiden vs. winners, yes, but she was only a neck shy of beating boys in her WO debut Aug. 30 and less than a length short of being a G1 SW there Sept. 14; in other words, the girl's got game; speed can have her forwardly placed from the start and Casse, who this in 2015 with Catch A Glimpse, isn't the type to significantly overmatch his horses so if he thinks she, as a maiden, belongs you should probably not question it.

Not only to like how she powered home to easily win the G2 Ms. Grillo at BAQ last time out Oct. 6, you have to like her tactical speed, that she can be forwardly placed while not being speed crazy; that could be key in a big field, particularly if s one of her main opposition is well behind her trapped in a crowd as if they were trying to get through a mall just before Christmas; that tactical speed can get her a bit of headstart and first run; worked well since for her HOF trainer.

3 good efforts in 3 starts, including a couple 2nds in stakes; of course, she got beat by a couple of these on those 2 occasions so she needs to find a bit to turn the tables on those rivals, not to mention deal with the other salty competition; that 2nd in the G2 Ms. Grillo at BAQ last time out Oct. 6 was particularly smart as she was well back early and left with far too much to do, though she ran on well; Brown has dominated this race, winning 6 of the 16 runnings including Hard to Justify last year.

Gives O'Brien a 2-headed beast as this gal and stablemate Lake Victoria are imposing; continues her sharp form and the way she finished 7fs last time hints today's added furlong won't be a bother; Euros have won just 3 of the 16 runnings but O'Brien had one of those (Meditate, 2022); in fact, he has the most BC wins of any non-U.S.-based trainer so he knows what it takes to win a BC race; of course, the hurdles are many and not insignificant; regular rider Moore ends up on Lake Victoria, so read into that what you will.

2 for 2 on turf in Ky. and she accomplished that in different fashion, showing speed before winning her ELP debut July 27 and then lagging back and finishing strongly to win a stakes at KD Sept. 8; must deal with new surroundings, tougher foes and a long er trip but she's already handled a couple different types of courses so maybe this tighter layout won't be a bother; worked well since and that versatility is no small matter in a big field on this tight layout when traffic and trip are at a premium.

Rallied from well back to win the G3 Matron on BAQ turf Oct. 6 so there's some quality here; that said, this is her first route and just because a horse rallies sprinting it doesn't mean they'll route; of course, you can't yet say she can't do it, and sh e's certainly bred to get more ground; Beyers trending the right way and if you toss that washed-off-the-turf stakes at SAR a few months ago when she was no factor she's run well in 3 of her other 4, all on turf; Casse won this with Catch A Glimpse in 20 15.

Showed ample ability overseas with a couple G3 SPs in her last 2 in Ireland; today's foe Heavens Gate beat her both times, however, and beat her another time so could it be 'Gate has this girl's number?; could be, though with so many changes for this (sh ipping halfway around the world, dealing with new surroundings, a course layout likely tighter than she's accustomed to and ground likely firmer than she's accustomed to) maybe that can help her turn the tables; Euros have won just 3 of the 16 runnings of f this.

Not only 3 for 3 all those wins came routing and came on 3 different courses including a G2 last time out; yes, it's her first time here but she's already handled the SAR inner, a non-traditional KD course and the KEE layout so odds are she'll handle this place; her KD win shows she doesn't have to come from way out of it, either; Frankie has been up for all her work so he knows what makes her tick and she's got enough versatility to give him options.

Showed turf talent when romping over maidens on ELP turf (at this trip) Aug. 19, then validated it when a sharp 2nd in a G1 at WO at this trip; on both occasions she showed tactical speed meaning she can be forwardly placed, avoiding the jostling crowd a nd traffic behind; obviously the distance is no bother and while it's her first time here she's already handled ELP turf and WO turf so odds are she'll handle this place; Casse won this with Catch A Glimpse in 2015.

Euros have won just 3 of the 16 runnings of this race; filly has loads of quality easily winning a G3 in England Aug. 24 and then running 6th in a G2 there Sept. 12 behind maybe the best 2yo filly in Europe; so, there was no shame in that; now asked to s hip halfway around the world, deal with some very tough rivals including Euro beast Lake Victoria and do so in new surroundings on a course likely configured tighter than she's used to and ground firmer than she's used to.

AE kept on for 3rd in a G3 on SA turf at this trip Oct. 6, but let's face it, she was never really a threat as she was well beaten; the Beyer went up nicely but she's got work to do to make up ground on May Day Ready and Thought Process who beat her in her last 2; and she'll have a brutally tough post if she gets to play.

AE stalked and finished gamely to get her diploma at SA Sept. 27; that was her first turf try and she handled the ground well; that said, it was sprinting (we're routing today) and came vs. maidens (faces G1 company here); at least worked well since and Mandella isn't in the HOF because he puts his horses in the wrong spots, but she's being asked a lot here and a dreadful draw if she goes won't help matters. -Michael Hammersly
